

Business Continuity and Opportunities During 2012

9:30am-1:30pm, 8th February, Ship Hotel, Weybridge, Surrey

- 9:00am Registration, plus Tea & Coffee
- 9:30am Welcome and Introduction
Surriya Subramaniam, Business Development Manager, Surrey County Council
- 9:45am Preparing for 2012 & Winning Business through CompeteFor
- Business Planning
 - Get Games Time Ready
 - Torch Stops
 - Where to find opportunities
 - Using CompeteFor
 - 2012 and beyond
- Steven Powell, Principal Supply Chain Consultant, Business to Business
- 10:30am Business Continuity During 2012
- Lessons from previous major sporting events
 - Why it is so important to give yourself time to plan effectively
 - The role of networked IT systems
 - The 10 point plan to make your organisation resilient to unpredictable events
- Bharat Thakrar, Head of BCM, Security Practice, BT Global Services
- 11:30am Tea and Coffee break
- 11:45am Local Events & Information
- What's happening in our area – Torch stops and the Cycle races
 - Business Opportunities arising from Pre-Games Training Camps
 - How your business might be affected
 - Training opportunities with Tourism South East
 - Opportunities for you
 - Parallel events - proposed live sites and other events, opportunities who to contact
- Barrie Higham, Culture and Tourism Legacy Officer, Surrey County Council
- 12:30pm Counter Terror
Surrey Police
- 1:00pm Q&A
- 1:30pm Close of seminar

Supporters:

